German is the official teaching language at the HGB. There are no courses that are exclusively taught in English. We accept exchange students who don't speak any or hardly any German - it is a decision within the department and of the respective head of class, if he/she is willing and able to work with non-German speaking students.

Non-German speakers might not be able to attend certain workshops courses (for safety issues, because the workshop staff might not be able to provide the necessary safety instructions in English).
